

In a civilized society it should be a crime to assault children. This includes hitting or slapping in anyway, no exceptions.

This includes the parents of children. No exceptions.

Make corporal punishment of children a crime. The use of violence as a tool of discipline is the practice of lazy, difunctional parenting. No excuses. No exceptions.

Children should not have to live their lives in fear of their parents.

No exceptions.